2012 Agenda: THE SUPERRETURN U.S. VC DEBATE

Why Invest In Venture Capital Given Its Patchy Track Record?

Moderator: Tim Bliamptis, Managing Director, WEATHERGATE CAPITAL

Gary R. Little, Partner, MORGENTHALER VENTURES

Chris Douvos, Managing Director, VENTURE INVESTMENT ASSOCIATES

Chris joined VIA in 2011 as a Managing Director. He previously spent seven years co-heading the private equity program at The Investment Fund For Foundations (TIFF). In this role, he was responsible for over $1 billion in new capital commitments and stewarded a program that was ranked in the top 5% of its peers. Prior to joining TIFF, Mr. Douvos worked on Princeton University's endowment team, where his duties included selection and evaluation of external managers, risk analysis, and asset allocation modeling. Previously, he was a strategy consultant at Monitor Company working with clients in the financial services, healthcare, and telecom sectors and as an analyst for Monitor's principal investing activities.

Mr. Douvos authors an acclaimed blog, www.SuperLP.com, that explores topics in investing and human nature. He has been profiled in Venture Capital Journal and Private Equity Analyst and regularly speaks at industry conferences and business schools. Mr. Douvos earned his BA with Distinction in history from Yale College in 1994 and an MBA from Yale School of Management in 2001. He was awarded the CFA Charter in 2004. He currently serves on the Board of the Palo Alto Community Fund and sits on the investment committee of the Castilleja School.
