VENTURE CAPITAL INVESTING CONFERENCE (featuring the Family Office Symposium)

June 19 - 20, 2012 - St. Regis Hotel, San Francisco, CA

The IBF Venture Capital Investing Conference is the Premier Industry Gathering For VCs and LPs. IBF organized the first Venture Capital Investing Conference back in 1989 and has continued to bring together venture capitalists and limited partners each year in June.

2012 Agenda:

Roles Of Micro VC Funds

- Early stage performance substantiates the early stage venture capital investing model
- Less portfolio companies for the VC firm to manage and build

Panelist:

Chris Douvos, Managing Director

Venture Investment Associates

Chris Douvos joined VIA in 2011 as a Managing Director. He is a member of the Firm's Investment Committee and has responsibility across all facets of the firm, including the management of relationships with the funds' managers and its limited partners, as well as, the identification and development of new relationships for the firm.

He previously spent seven years co-heading the private equity program at The Investment Fund For Foundations (TIFF). In this role, he was responsible for over $1 billion in new capital commitments and stewarded a program that was ranked in the top 5% of its peers. Chris represented TIFF on over a dozen VC and LBO partnership advisory boards.

Prior to joining TIFF, Mr. Douvos worked on Princeton University's endowment team, where his duties included selection and evaluation of external managers, risk analysis, and asset allocation modeling. Previously, he was a strategy consultant at Monitor Company working with clients in the financial services, healthcare, and telecom sectors and as an analyst for Monitor's principal investing activities.

Mr. Douvos authors an acclaimed blog, www.SuperLP.com that explores topics in investing and human nature. He has been profiled in Venture Capital Journal and Private Equity Analyst and regularly speaks at industry conferences and business schools. Chris earned his BA with Distinction in history from Yale College in 1994 and an MBA from Yale School of Management in 2001. He was awarded the CFA Charter in 2004. He currently serves on the Board of the Palo Alto Community Fund and sits on the investment committee of the Castilleja School.
