Southern Capital Forum (www.southerncapitalforum.org)

Founded in 1984 to foster closer professional relationships among the members of the Southeast private capital community through the exchange of information and ideas, the Southern Capital Forum (aka Atlanta Venture Forum) has grown into the largest trade association for private capital investors in the Southeast.

Membership in the Southern Capital Forum is comprised of private equity, venture capital, corporate and angel investors and groups that provide products or services to the private capital community.
