Douvos Reprises Faculty Role at Kauffman Fellows Program Summit

On October 25th, Christopher Douvos, a managing director with Venture Investment Associates, shared his perspective on the issues facing the VC industry as part of the faculty at the Kauffman Fellows Program reunion summit. His talk during the plenary session, "A View from the Perch of Top Limited Partners," was followed by a seminar focused on "Escaping the Tyranny of Mediocrity".

About the Summit

We are "returning to our roots"—bringing 20 years of Kauffman Fellows, and top investors from around the world, back to Kauffman Foundation headquarters in Kansas City.

Kauffman Fellows, a worldwide community of experts in smart, connected capital, was pleased to host their 8th Global Summit. Co-hosted by the Kauffman Foundation in Kansas City, the Reunion Summit celebrated 20 years of the Kauffman Fellows Program and their renewed relationship with their founders, convening their community of innovation investors to share engaging content and partake in plentiful networking opportunities in the "Heartland" of the United States.
