Chris Douvos, Managing Director, Venture Investment Associates

Chris Douvos joined Venture Investment Associates (VIA) in 2011 as a Managing Director. He is a member of the Firm’s Investment Committee and has responsibility across all facets of the firm, including the management of relationships with the funds’ managers and its limited partners, as well as, the identification and development of new relationships for the firm.

He previously spent seven years co-heading the private equity program at The Investment Fund For Foundations (TIFF). In this role, he was responsible for over $1 billion in new capital commitments and stewarded a program that was ranked in the top 5% of its peers. Mr. Douvos represented TIFF on over a dozen VC and LBO partnership advisory boards.

Prior to joining TIFF, Mr. Douvos worked on Princeton University’s endowment team, where his duties included selection and evaluation of external managers, risk analysis, and asset allocation modeling. Previously, he was a strategy consultant at Monitor Company working with clients in the financial services, healthcare, and telecom sectors and as an analyst for Monitor’s principal investing activities.

Mr. Douvos authors an acclaimed blog, www.SuperLP.com, that explores topics in investing and human nature. He has been profiled in Venture Capital Journal and Private Equity Analyst and regularly speaks at industry conferences and business schools. Mr. Douvos earned his BA with Distinction in history from Yale College in 1994 and an MBA from Yale School of Management in 2001. He was awarded the CFA Charter in 2004. He currently serves on the Board of the Palo Alto Community Fund and sits on the investment committee of the Castilleja School.
